Family fun and serenity all rolled up into this sweet lakefront retreat. The home itself is gorgeous, and sitting pretty on year round water. This is a Dan Fehr creation, designed for beauty and function. The master suite is on the main and has everything you could want. The great room has a vaulted ceilings and a fantastic view. The kitchen has hard surface counter tops, and a that view too! Upstairs there are two generous bedrooms and a massive bonus room. Lots of storage in this home as well. One whole wall of the bonus room has storage behind it, and there is a generous storage closet off the garage. From the entrance to the water, everything is done with classic waterfront living in mind. The decking is high end for permanence. There is an outdoor shower on the sunset side of the home. The seawall is already in place,
