From the circular colored concrete driveway, you'll walk through the fountain accented courtyard to enter a welcoming abode. Moving onto scored color concrete floors beneath soaring 12-foot-high ceilings where you will instantly catch a glimpse of the tranquil backyard with inspiring Catalina mountain views. Turning the corner past the coved ceiling formal dining you will appreciate a Chef's kitchen with extraordinary Rincon mountain views to the east, an range top inset enriched with travertine tile, an expansive center island graced with a granite counter top complimenting this resplendent kitchen, highlighted by stainless-steel appliances. The split living area and formal dining invite guests to luxurious entertaining. The master bedroom accentuated with a private fireplace, barbecue kitchenette, gratifying pool and seductive Catalina mountain views. Enjoy the magnificent sunrises and moon rises over the Rincon Mountains. Indulge yourself with a quick of the video followed by a personal virtual tour to confirm that this is truly an impressive home.
