This historic home is called the "Old Roscoe Post". It is perfectly situated right next to the legendary Grizzly Bar & Steakhouse in Roscoe, MT. The home was built in 1920 and functioned as the Post Office for the town of Roscoe and later as General Store. The entire interior of the home was remodeled in 2007. This truly is a fun and cozy place. It can be used as a recreational/vacation home, a rental property, a primary residence or as a combination of residential and commercial property. The detached rustic cabin in the back of the property offers extra storage.
