A release from the day's stress overcomes you when the double-gates open granting access to the renown Castle of Montebello. Pull through the porte-cochere to the 4-car garage and then step foot into your fortress of luxury. Terrazzo flooring flows through each room carrying a fresh design and character throughout the home. French doors can be found all throughout the estate on the main level to allow the fall breeze and spring air to mix with the roaring fires in the bar room and main living-area. Explore this estate and be surprised over and over again. Located only 30 minutes from downtown St. Louis, this 60 acres estate located on the hills above the Meramec & Mississippi Rivers will surely delight your desire for fine living. The stone home was built by one of the Magic Chef heirs with no expenses spared. The foyer is
